

KATHY IRELAND

One of the top ten advocates for women's health in America, Supermodel turned Supermogul Kathy Ireland, chief designer and CEO of kathy ireland Worldwide whose mission statement is, “...finding solutions for families, especially busy moms”, has been named by the Associated Press “a best friend to working mothers.” Kathy says, “All moms work whether we get paid or not.” A mom, wife, and humanitarian, Kathy is celebrated for her design gifts and philanthropy; and her voice is heard by audiences around the globe as she speaks annually at the United Nations to the Youth Assembly. In addition, Kathy supports Feed the Children, Feeding America, The Red Cross, Sheba Medical Center in Israel, The Dream Foundation, Athletes and Entertainers for Kids, The Special Olympics, the Elizabeth Taylor HIV/AIDS Foundation and global education initiatives for children.

Lauded by “License Global Magazine” as the 23rd Most Powerful Licensed Brand in the world, kathy ireland Worldwide has been acknowledged by “Newsweek”, “Forbes”, and the “Wall Street Journal” as a 1.4 billion design empire; “Women’s Wear Daily” has recognized it as America’s seventh most popular in its category, and “House Beautiful” has celebrated it as one of the 25 “Great Furniture Collections” in America. For more information on Kathy Ireland, please visit www.kathyireland.com.