2009 Drivers' Choice Award Winners

Best of the Year ▪ Volkswagen Jetta TDI

"Offering world-class efficiency and spirited performance, the Jetta TDI is a no-compromise diesel alternative to the family car."

Best Small Car ▪ Honda Fit

"Still fuel efficient with a fine sporting character, the all-new Fit is slightly larger and more powerful than before."

Best Family Sedan ▪ Mazda6

"With the most dynamic styling in its class, the Mazda 6 now has the family size interior room to really compete."

Best Minivan ▪ Dodge Grand Caravan/Chrysler Town & Country

"These two family phenoms have never been better."

Best Sport Sedan ▪ Cadillac CTS

"The CTS-V is nothing short of a four-door track star."

Best Luxury Sedan ▪ Hyundai Genesis

"It's the overall impeccable quality of fit, finish and response to the driver that makes the Genesis a huge achievement."

Best Convertible ▪ BMW 1-Series

"It's the perfect car for sun worshipers and driving enthusiasts alike."

Best Small Utility ▪ Subaru Forester

"The new Forester is a multi-purpose vehicle that's in tune with the times."

Best Large Utility ▪ Honda Pilot

"For a safe, state-of-the-art, go anywhere people-mover, the Honda Pilot is clearly out front."

Best Pickup Truck ▪ Dodge Ram 1500

"Full of innovations and technology, the Ram is no longer just another pickup."

Best Sport Coupe ▪ Audi A5/S5

"With stunning looks, the Audi A5/S5 defines rolling beauty with a sporting edge."

Best Performance Car ▪ Nissan GT-R

"Racetrack-bred, the GT-R gets its cat-like reflexes from tight, a driver-adjustable suspension and full-time all-wheel drive."

Best Eco-Friendly ▪ Volkswagen Jetta TDI

"This 50-state legal clean diesel delivers hybrid-like fuel economy with less complexity."

Best Dream Machine ▪ Chevrolet Corvette ZR1 (two winners)

"The 2009 ZR1 is, simply put, the most exhilarating American sports car ever built."

Ferrari California

"As a modern interpretation of the legendary 250 GT, the 2 +2 California is all about pleasure."
