

Zire™ 72

Take pictures. Play MP3s¹. Organize life.

The handheld that works as hard as it plays.

Now you can shoot photos and capture and watch video clips¹ anywhere you go. Or listen to MP3s¹ as you take your tunes wherever life takes you. When it comes to productivity, the Zire 72™ handheld means business. Create and edit Word- and Excel-compatible files. Or get wireless e-mail and Internet access with its built-in Bluetooth® technology (requires a compatible Bluetooth-enabled mobile phone and an ISP, both sold separately). All on a brilliant color display that keeps your whole life looking good.

Take pictures. Capture video. Share life.

Life moves pretty fast, but that doesn't mean you can't capture its moments. Thanks to the Zire 72 handheld's built-in camera, you can shoot photos and video clips¹, then share them with friends and co-workers. Simply show them in person or download and send them via e-mail from your computer. Create entire albums of pictures and videos¹ on your handheld.

Play MP3s¹.

Carry your tunes with you wherever you go, and listen to them using the built-in speakers or a pair of stereo headphones². It won't slow you down, either. You can play MP3s while you're scheduling appointments, adding contacts, or just enjoying a spare moment. With the Zire 72 handheld, your life just sounds better.

Use Word, Excel, and Acrobat.

The Zire 72 handheld keeps your business tools close at hand by letting you create and edit Word- and Excel-compatible documents. Not to mention opening up ever-popular Adobe Acrobat files.

Take photos and carry them in customized photo albums.
